SCHERR LAW FIRM INTERNSHIP WEEK ACTIVITIES

EL PASO, TEXAS — October 11, 2023 — Scherr Law Firm, in partnership with Northwest Early College High School, selected four high school students to intern this week as part of their Inaugural Internship and Scholarship Program: Yamilette Contreras, Brandon Enciso, Sebastian Esparza and Jacob Lozano. I have attached the formal itinerary with a list of activities (see attached), pictures from those activities thus far (see below) and are conducting a press conference to issue scholarship checks on Wednesday, October 18th, 2023, at 10:30 am at the Northwest Early College High School Campus.

Today, student interns recited the Pledge of Allegiance at the El Paso City Council Meeting, met with the Mayor and Council Members. They also went to both Federal and District Courts, met with Judge Kathleen Cardone, Judge Annabell Perez and their staff, as well as attorneys Eduardo Solis, Steve Garcia, Edythe Payan and William Dixon. It was both an honor and a privilege for the students to listen, ask questions and get firsthand accounts of experiences and motivating factors for each respective career path.

On Thursday and Friday, the students will continue with guest speakers including: District Attorney and EPISD Board Member Alex Cuellar, Former City Council Member and Attorney Steve Ortega, County Attorney Christina Sanchez, Immigration Attorney Melissa Untereker, Criminal Defender Mateo Dekoatz. Former City Council Member and ADL Southwest Coordinator Peter Svarzbein and El Paso Chihuahuas Senior Communications Director Angela Olivas.

Student interns are also working on a real case throughout the week.

To qualify for this internship, each applicant filled out a formal application, wrote an essay describing a challenge/obstacle they have overcome or reason why they wanted to be an attorney and submitted their transcripts. Scherr Law Firm's plans on continuing this Internship and Scholarship Program during Summer 2024. Future applicants can find the application online at www.scherrlawfirm.com.
